MEXICO CITY SHAKEN.

Severest Earthquake Since 1827, Lasting Two Minutes, Shakes Topeka.

New York, Nov. 3.—A special dispatch to the World from Mexico City, says:

The severest earthquake since 1827 occurred here at 6:34 o'clock this morning, lasting about two minutes. Three distinct shocks were felt. Several houses and walls have fallen.

PERNAMBUCO, Nov. 3.—Slight earthquake shocks have been felt in this province. It is learned that they are continuing throughout Brazil, Argentine and Uruguay.

ANOTHER JAP VICTORY.

Marshal Yamagata Has Captured Chinese City of Fung Whang Ching.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Japanese legation has received a dispatch stating that Field Marshal Yamagata has captured Fung Whang Ching, a city in the Chinese province of Linning, near the Korean frontier. The Chinese defending the place fled towards Mantien-Ling.

The foregoing victory is an important one. It leaves the mountain road open to the Japanese, and the Chinese are unlikely to offer any resistance to the advance of the Japanese army.

KANSAS PATENTS.

Patents granted to citizens of Kansas for the week ending October 30, 1894, reported through the office of J. F. Beale, solicitor of patents, 606 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C.: Selas Anderson, Ottawa, wire stretcher; Charles W. Speckin, Argentine, railway frog.

TODAY'S MARKET REPORT.

Furnished by the Associated Press to the State Journal.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The grain markets are barely steady here today though oats were firm and higher. There has been some buying of wheat here for London and Liverpool and northwestern receipts were nearly 200 cars less than last year, but Bradstreet's report showed the world's total stocks of wheat were the largest on record. The local receipts fell short of the estimate by 74 cars. December started $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 53 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and advanced to 53 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Later the market declined to the opening price.

Corn was easier on the improvement in the weather. There was considerable selling at the early hour, holders of puts being the principal buyers. May started $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 51 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and declined to 50 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Oats were steady. May opened a shade lower at 32 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and declined to 32 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

Provisions were weak on the large hog receipts. January pork started $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and declined to 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. January lard opened $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, advanced to 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and receded to 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Estimates for Monday: Wheat 130 cars, corn 235 cars, oats 115 cars, hogs 86,000 head, hogs next week 165,000.

FEALTY TO NICHOLAS.

Special Service Held in the Church at Livadia.

Accession of Nicholas is Celebrated by His Family.

SIGNED THE OATH.

At St. Petersburg the Ceremonies Were Very Impressive.

Party of the People's Rights Under Police Observation.

LIVADIA, Nov. 3.—A special service to celebrate the accession of Nicholas II to the throne of Russia was held today in the palace church. It was attended by the czar, czarina, the queen of Greece, the duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt, the grand dukes and grand duchesses now in Livadia and by the chief officials of the district.

SIGNED THE OATH OF FEALTY. Large Numbers Swear to Shed Their Blood for the Czar.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from St. Petersburg, says that in order to save Daiglers, the Russian foreign minister, who is pressed by business and who is in ill health, the Hon. Mr. Breckinridge, the American minister, in presenting President Cleveland's message of condolence, also represented all the other ministers in St. Petersburg, except the British minister, who personally called.

The service in the cathedral was most impressive. Toward the close the metropolitan took off his mitre and read passages from the bible, including the duty of obedience to the king. At that moment the whole congregation knelt, vowing allegiance to Nicholas. After this a large number crowded around the tables and signed the oath of fealty which pledged them to spend their last drop of blood for the czar and the country.

The ceremony lasted an hour and was equally noteworthy for the magnificence of the vestments of the clergy and the brilliancy of the costumes of the officials and ladies. There was not a sign of mourning from the beginning to the end, but after the ceremony the mourning was resumed and St. Petersburg is now like a city of the dead.

Numerous Arrests. People's Rights Manifesto Causes Students to be Placed Under Police Observation.

ODESSA, Nov. 3.—The issue of the manifesto by the party of the People's Rights has led to numerous arrests, lists of the persons to whom police were addressed through the Post having been handed to the police. Nearly all the university students in Odessa, Kieff, Klarkoff, Moscow and St. Petersburg are now under police observation. Large numbers of copies of the manifesto are being circulated secretly.

From what can be learned from many different quarters the moderate and reasonable spirit of the document is producing a grave impression.

Don't Want to Sympathize. BUDA PESTH, Nov. 3.—Several hundred Hungarian newspapers agree that opposition should be raised to the proposed vote of condolence with the Russian nation which it is proposed to pass in parliament. The ground for this opposition is that the Russian has no pretensions to which such a message of sympathy could be addressed. The Liberals however intend to support the motion of condolence, which will be proposed by Dr. Wekerle, the premier, and so it is expected that the motion will be adopted.

No More Religious Persecution. BERLIN, Nov. 3.—The Tagblatt says that the manifesto of Nicholas is a renunciation of all pan-Slavish and Chauvinist aims and constitutes a break with the policy of blind religious persecution and of reckless suppression of Germans, Poles and Finns.

Poles Send Condolence. WARSAW, Nov. 3.—A deputation of leading Poles waited upon the governor of Warsaw today to express sympathy with the imperial family in the loss they have sustained in the death of the czar.

BISMARCK'S COUSIN.

The Count is Very Much Pleased With the Russian Manifesto.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Count Von Bismarck, a cousin of the great German statesman, is a guest of the Victoria hotel. Concerning the political effect of the death of the czar would have in Europe the count said he had nothing to say.

He said he visited Alaska and was much impressed with the mining operations that he saw there. He thought the United States was a great country and the more he saw of it the better he liked it. Before he goes home he will visit Cuba and the Bahamas.

MONEY FOR THE CANAL.

Funds Secured to Begin Work on Nicaragua Canal, It is Said.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—It has been announced by people closely connected with the Nicaragua canal that the Nicaragua Canal Construction company has secured enough money to go on with the work of building the canal from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean through Nicaragua and Costa Rica.

The plan of the Nicaragua Canal Construction company which has concessions from the government for the territory where the canal will go, it was said that the prospects were favorable to building the canal in a short time.
